The International Cultural Festival at Jiangnan University was held on April 20. With the theme of "One World, One Family," this year's event has attracted foreign students from more than 30 countries and regions participating in the festival via dancing shows, a picture exhibition, and a food festival. We, as the collective student body, were proud to host an event that truly brought us all together.

The scale of the event this year was much bigger than in previous years. I've been waiting for this for a long time. Let's have a look at the Pakistani hut. The Pakistani students do their best to decorate their cultural hut. The main attractions of the Pakistani cultural hut are Pakistani food, traditional dresses, cultural dances, flag tattoos, HINA (a temporary form of skin decoration), and calligraphy. All Pakistani students wearing their native clothes and the national flag marched around the festival site. A guest from the Pakistan Embassy in China was also invited to visit the Pakistani hut. Much fun was had by all who attended.

Gift, a Tanzanian student, thought the event was amazing because "you can find different kinds of people here."
