East Lake enchants the world

From June 9 to 13, photographers from home and abroad spent five days in East Lake. They created more than a thousand beautiful works of photography in their own styles.

Yuan Minghui is a macro photographer from Wuhan. A lotus flower from the Magpie Bridge in Luoyan Scenic Area in East Lake, attracted his attention. He took this double-exposure photo of dried lotus stems and blossoming lotus flowers that shows the beauty of the East Lake's seasonal changes.
