14-16 Nov. China International Friendship Cities Conference

The China International Friendship Cities Conference will be held in Wuhan from November 14 through 16. Co-sponsored by the Chinese People's Association for Friendship with Foreign Countries and Wuhan Municipal People's Government, it is the highest-level international conference related to both international friendship cities and international friendly exchange cities in China.

The conference has been held every two years since 2008 and the host cities previously were Beijing, Shanghai, Chengdu, Guangzhou and Chongqing. Up to a thousand representatives from more than 300 friendship cities all over the world will be gathering in Wuhan. Among them, mayors and deputy mayors of foreign friendship cities and political figures from the countries will all come to Wuhan to promote friendship and seek common development.

2-3 Nov. Bordeaux & Aquitaine Wine Festival

By Helen Pan

The 9th Bordeaux & Aquitaine Wine Festival in Wuhan will take place on November 2 and 3 at the Sheraton Grand Wuhan Hankou Hotel, offering visitors an opportunity to taste top French wines for free.

A wine tasting activity of the festival will be held there November 3. About 150 French wines, all Bordeaux Wine Award winners, will be available for the public to sample. An award ceremony in Wuhan for the favorite wines in 2018 will take place on the same day.

As in the past, this annual festival will feature a master connoisseur's class (advance registration is required) for participants interested in learning more about French wines. In the course, students learn about wines that they prefer and wines from the Cotes de Bordeaux region.

14-16 Nov. 2018 Global Sourcing (Wuhan) Forum and Sourcing Fair

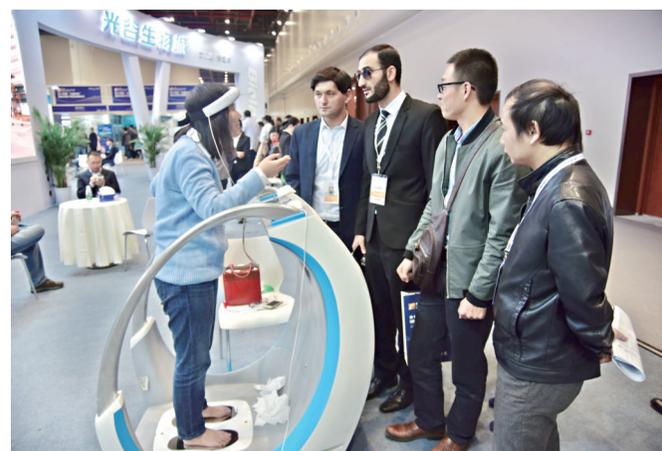

The 9th Global Sourcing (Wuhan) Forum and Sourcing Fair will be held at the Wuhan International Convention & Exhibition Center between November 14 and 16.

Experts and business representatives from home and abroad will be invited to share the latest research results and practical exploration in the field of sourcing. They will also explore ways of improving the quality and efficiency of sourcing so as to promote supply-side structural reform and high-quality economic development. Additionally, exchanges will be made on how to boost global sourcing and promote the integration and coordination of global supply chains to achieve the mutual benefit and common development of all countries in the world.

At the same time, a sourcing exhibition with the theme "Energy Saving, Health and Green" will be held.
